Michael Young
Selected Bibliography

Abstraction and Realism
Thursday, March 16, 2017

About:

Michael Young received his Master’s Degree from Princeton University and a Bachelor of Architecture from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. He is currently an Assistant Professor at the Cooper Union, Visiting Assistant Professor at Princeton University, and Visiting Instructor at SCI-Arc. In 2016, Michael was the Louis I. Kahn Visiting Assistant Professor at Yale University. He previously taught design studios and seminars at Yale, Columbia, Syracuse, Pratt, Cornell and Innsbruck University.

Michael is an architect, and founding partner of the Young & Ayata architectural design studio. Young & Ayata were awarded a Design Vanguard Award from Architectural Record for 2016. In 2015 Young & Ayata received a first place in designing the new Bauhaus Museum in Dessau, Germany. In 2014, the firm received the Young Architects Prize from the Architectural League of New York, and became finalists for the MoMA Young Architects Program at the Istanbul Modern.

Articles (2013-2016):

Website: YES Architecture firm http://www.yes-architecture.com

Nilda Sanchez-Rodriguez, Architecture Librarian
March 2017

Image: http://wwvolumes.com